Follow Along

How many staff are in your department? ________
How many of those are women? ________________
What’s your %? ____________________________

Notes
__________________________________________
__________________________________________
__________________________________________
__________________________________________
__________________________________________

What action do you feel inspired to take upon leaving this session?
__________________________________________
__________________________________________
__________________________________________
__________________________________________
__________________________________________
__________________________________________

Key Takeaways

- Model the behavior you wish to see
- Improve your local office culture
- Establish ground rules for behavior
- Be an ally, mentor or sponsor
- Provide networking opportunities
- Start a mentorship program
- Establish or join a Women in IT group
- Attend women’s events
- Increase visibility of female information security professionals

9 Non-threatening Leadership Strategies for Women

#9 WHEN YOU DISAGREE

"THREATENING"

Yes it will

That strategy won’t solve our problem

NON-THREATENING

Oh ok

That strategy won’t solve our problem

THECOOPERREVIEW.COM